As to claim 13, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious calculating a plurality of depolarization parameters, except for the depolarization index, from the Mueller matrix as a contrast mechanism for identifying features of the illuminated object as clearly shown, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the claim.

And as to claim 17, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious analyzing said Mueller matrix by calculating a plurality of depolarization parameters, except for the depolarization index, from the Mueller matrix as a contrast mechanism for use in identifying features of the retina as clearly shown, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the claim.
